

Introduction to programme
and topics of the day

Morning session
Land use planning

11. november 2016

Land use planning

- Preventative measure
- Mitigation
- The role of
 - local LUP-Authorities
 - the competent authorities
 - the industry

Land use planning

- Balancing the need for securing the surroundings and increased pressure on available land.
- Changes in the traditional industrial areas is a challenge for the municipalities and their land use policy.
- Local land use planning authorities are not aware of the explosives sites and their need for safety distances.

Security related issues

- Sharing of information - What is necessary to share?
 - Lists of chemicals
 - Security measures
 - Details of the installations
 - Technical and physical barriers